7:15 - 8:00 Dinner

8:00 - 9:00 Program

9:00 Networking

Program: "Networking — What's In It For Me?"

Through our SACWN membership we have access to a wealth of knowledge, advice and moral support. However, the concept of networking is new to most women so we are uncomfortable and really don't know how to tap into the resources available to us. Our next meeting, presented by the Membership Development Committee, will allow us to experience for ourselves the benefits of networking. Through structured networking we will discover all the expertise available to us just for the asking. You will probably be astounded, you may even win a prize. Call 481-4538.

No RSVP's will be necessary, but you must be registered prior to 7:15 to assure getting a dinner plate. Dinner will be a chef's choice buffet with dessert and coffee served after the program. Cost of the dinner will be $10.00 for members and $15.00 for non-members. Program only seating will also be available for $5.00.

This program speaks to the heart and goal of SACWN's role in uniting and strengthening our positions in the workday world—as we learn how to take advantage of our opportunities for and access to advancement by successful recognition of our talents and contributions.

Over 270 women delighted in the romantic mood of the Valentines Dance held in February.

■ Successful Sacwnite:

We know you're out there making an impact, here's where you should be taking a bow. Inspire your peers and let us share in your career achievements. Applause and appreciation are only a phone call away. Call 678-3581 evenings.

■ Committee News:

Steering Committee

The Steering Committee is beginning to think and talk about the need to define the legal form of SACWN. Our information from last Fall's surveys indicates that confidentiality is important to members. Since incorporation or other formal organizational options would have some impact on confidentiality, a series of meetings will be held with the membership to discuss these concerns and help the Steering Committee in making a decision. Anyone with a special interest in working on this aspect of our organization is invited and encouraged to contact Gail at 457-4852 (evenings).

Our books and financial records are currently being reviewed for financial accuracy, as they are each year. We're in sound financial shape and ready for the rest of the year's programs and events. To refresh your memory, the remainder of our annual program is as follows:

- May 17 — Mother's Theme (Sunday in the Park)
- June 19 — Women of Color Panel Discussion
- July 19 — Western Theme (Sunday in the Park)
- August 21 — Sexual Harassment on the Job/Meeting with Pillars
- September 18 — Career Networking and Development Theme
- October 17 — Annual Meeting/Dance
- November 20 — Holiday Party

YOU GET A FINE PERFORMANCE EVERY TIME

Membership Development

Don't miss the career table set up at each meeting. It holds a bounty of business cards, job announcements and information for your perusal and use. This is a valuable resource that all members can contribute to and benefit by, so bring your business cards and employment materials for display.

Come to the next committee meeting scheduled for April 1, 7 p.m. Call 481-4538 for details.

Newsletter Committee

Between and Between

The newsletter has a new shape this month as we begin the process of change that will bring new features and facets of information to our readers. This publication is your forum for networking, community development and idea-sharing. We look forward to feedback and responses from SACWNites.
